The Italian Club Wishes You Happy Thanksgiving

President Corner

By Brian Dijulio

November is the month of gratitude, with the Thanksgiving holiday being the crescendo of the month, and it's focus on all that we should and are thankful for. Here are just a few of the things I am truly thankful for and may help you see your own glass half full rather than half empty too:

The gift of faith, which when all else in the world may fail, or disappoint me, it is there to calm and comfort me, and help me realize what's really important in my life.

The gift of a large loving family, who love me unconditionally, and always make me feel welcome and worthwhile, they will always be my "home."

The gift of health, which I

November 2008 Luncheon: (And Future)

I have spoken to our president, Brian Dijulio and our vice president Anna Popovich, and suggested we cancel our November luncheon.

Our December luncheon will still be our special luncheon, honoring our past presidents and 2008 committee chair persons. That date is set for Wednesday, December 17th and it will be held at our regular meeting place, the Rock Salt Steakhouse (see reservation forms and information on page 5).

We have many loyal, regular members and friends that attend and donate lovely door prizes to make the luncheons even nicer. We thank them for their support and contributions in the past. Now, we need to address the future of our luncheons. Should we continue our monthly lunches? Go to every other month? Or even have them quarterly? It would be a shame to discontinue them completely. Dear members, we're just sharing with you and needing your thoughts, wishes and your support.

We can never thank Nick and Ginny Grossi enough for their years and years of chairing this event. His untiring phoning to have at least 20 attend and then the praying that we will hit our quota. Many of us may not be aware that the Italian Club has been subsidizing the lunches. Prices go up, thank you Italian Club. Roy Skibo and Ron Roletto, thank you also for your years of assistance at the luncheon and where ever else you are needed.

I would be remiss if I didn't thank all the former chairpersons and workers, of our monthly lunches for their dedication and presence. I thank Brian and Anna for appointing me as chairperson of this committee, but I need some feedback, please, on what "you" want and will support.

We'll talk at the meeting. I welcome your phone call or email regarding your thoughts and feeling regarding the lunches and its future.

See you at the meeting on the 13th.

President Corner

must remember can be quickly taken from me, if I don't work to take care of myself daily.

The gift of friendships that are more valuable than any material possession, and make each of lives more "rich" in every way.

The gift of living free in a country that stands for and fights for individual rights and a better way of life for all mankind, working to grant every human being the same opportunity to succeed.

Lastly, I'm so grateful for all of you and the opportunity you gave me to serve you as President of this great organization, which supports, fosters, and incorporates all of the gifts I mentioned above. A blessed and happy Thanksgiving to you all! Tutto Mangerie!

SECRETARY'S REPORT ... November, 2008 By Dennis Caldirola

Have you changed your mailing address lately? We have recently been hit with a number of returned newsletters and "Address Service Requested" charges from the Post Office which could have been avoided, had you simply picked up the phone and let us know.

As we are getting ready to send out dues notices for 2009, please help us out and tell us your new address. The office number is (206) 282-0627. Thanks!

For the record, we currently have 266 members in good standing, which shows good growth over the past couple of years. Many of our new members have originally found us on the internet: <http://www.italianclubofseattle.org> where you can also read il Ficcanaso in color!

Corrections to 2008 Roster:

The Hawaii phone number for member Angelo Merlino should read (808) 953-2003.

The correct cell phone number for Dorothy Whitney is: (206) 369-0076.

Nomination of Officers for 2009

By Dorothy Whitney, Chairman of Nominating Committee

President: Anna Popovich

Vice President: Monte Marchetti

Secretary: Dennis Caldirola

Treasurer: Joseph Galluccio

Trustees: Fran Albanese, Tom Grossi, Diana Kaczor, Michael Lazzaretti, Paul Pioli, and Brian DiJulio

Any member may make additional nominations from the floor at the November General Meeting, provided the nominee is present to accept the nomination or the nominee has previously consented in writing to accept the nomination.

You're a Winner

The drawing for the prizes were conducted by Ron Roletto. The October birthday winner was Sharon Pioli.

Spirits, coffee cards and dessert were won by Ed DeRocco, Cathy Volpone, Caroline Petre, Ron Roletto, Margaret Murray, Delores Ashbaugh, Mary Zorotovich, Dorothy Whitney and Mike Kaczor.

Carol Bishop, who was not in attendance, would have won the Progressive Prize. The Jackpot now goes to $50.00.

Where oh where does the time go?
Seems just like yesterday I was starting to prepare the October news.
Now, here's November.

October was busy, as predicted.
We're sure November and December will be no different. Time will tell and so will "we".

November: Voting, starting to shop for Christmas, attending meetings, going to some warm climate, Thanksgiving, visiting, relaxing and just enjoying family and friends.
Wow, tired, just thinking about it.

December: Children's Christmas Party, Adult Christmas Party, regular meeting, baking and shopping, writing Christmas cards, the past presidents and committee members appreciation lunch, the birthday of the baby Jesus, a happy and holy Christmas to all, thinking of the resolutions we're going to make for the new year,

Calling and visiting friends and shut-ins, the list just gets longer

All signs of a true loving Christmas spirit and thanking God for all the good we have received in 2008.

O.K. now, back to October ... if you don't mind. Our October luncheon was cancelled. We only had 10 member/friends that were able to attend. That would not be fair to our speaker, Judge Terrance Carroll and also, a little embarrassing. Judge Carroll understood and said he would be happy to come at another time in the future. Thank you Terry.

A great deal time and preparation was evident at our Halloween party. We thank Nancy and Tom Grossi, our chair persons, and the entire Grossi family for the decorated hall, the set up, the clean up, the fish pond for the children and the materials to decorate the pumpkins brought by the happy children. The youngest little party goer was Giada Caldirola, with mama and nana. Giada didn't miss a thing, watching and smiling. The oldest, well, I think there might be a tie, there was a happy clown and a sweet little holy witch. Both up there, but going strong.

We thank the children and adults that did attend and the members that assisted in the cleaning. Thank you Velva and Orlie, and my grandchildren. It was real teamwork.

Joe Patricelli has had some bad spells and was in the hospital. He is back at Wesley Home Health Care and receiving careful and loving care from his family and the Wesley caregivers. You are in our prayers Joe. Get better.

Tony Facciuto spent some time in the hospital also, had a bile duct procedure and is under the watchful care of Rosa. Tony take care and follow your doctor and Rosa's instructions. We understand surgery is in the future. You are in our prayers. Hurry and get well.

I thank you all for the prayers and good wishes when I had my cataract surgery. It's getting there. I will be down in the San Francisco area for five days. Looking forward to a good time with old friends, and of course, making some new ones too.

Barbara Peretti and Joanne Marchese traveled to Reno for the Columbus Day activities, we know you had a great time. Seeing good shows, playing and even relaxing a little.

This is a little old news, but news is news, heard that Linda and Frank d'onofrio traveled to Hawaii with 17 members of the family to celebrate their cousin's "60th." Birthday, I guess Frank wanted to learn how to hula. Then a couple months ago, they went to the San Francisco area. For what? We'll have to find out.

Mike Kaczor is still having problems with that leg. We know it does not stop Mike, he's getting to be quite the bingo player. Behave Mike.

We hope Ronnie Roletto had a great time on his trip, we'll be wanting to hear all about it Ronnie.

Another traveler heard that Michael Lazzaretti was in Vegas. How did you do, Mike?

FYI: Our lady of Mount Virgin Church's priest's house, (the old nun's house) suffered a fire. The two priests and the two dogs escaped, thank God. Until the house is repaired, which they say will take a couple months; they will set up housekeeping in a small rental near the church. They are in need of kitchen and household essentials. All was lost. A plea was made in our parish bulletin, donation of new items or $$$$. Donations may be brought to the parish office. This happened two weeks ago.

I want to wish all our shut-ins and members that are not able to attend the meetings a very happy Thanksgiving. We miss you; you are in our prayers and thoughts. We would love to hear from you and then share your news with the rest of the members, via the il Ficcanso. It is nice to read about "you and yours"

I try to update you with the goings and comings of our members, but I can't do it unless I hear about them. Be assured, we respect your wishes of what you want to share.

So my friends, I know you're saying, "thank God, she's finally closing." Have a great Thanksgiving, full of family, friends, love and good health.

See you at the meeting, please stay healthy.

Your informer,

Carolyn aka "sister"

Carolyn Jackson

Trick or Treat ...

Saturday, October 25, St. Joseph's Hall was all decked out for the Italian Club Halloween Party for children. Chairpersons Tom and Nancy Grossi and a group of helpers created a very festive Halloween atmosphere after hours of set-up time. There were plenty of scary things to delight the children .games, fishing pond and decorating pumpkins all added to the fun. Subway sandwiches, drinks, cupcakes and candy were served.

Many thanks to Tom and Nancy and Andrea Petrone and all the others who worked so hard. A good time was had by all, despite the low turn out.

Happy Thanksgiving

Pasta e Fagioli

There is always a debate whether this dish should be included in the soup or pasta category. This traditional peasant recipe is a great, stick to your ribs dish that is both nourishing and tasty. Serves 6.

Ingredients:

- 3 Tablespoons of Olive Oil
- Large Garlic Cloves, Minced
- Large Carrot, Finely Chopped
- Celery Stalks, Finely Chopped
- 1 Small Onion, Finely Chopped
- Peeled, Seeded and Chopped Ripe Roma Tomatoes (or Canned Equivalent)
- Quart Chicken Broth
- 2 (13oz) Tins Cannellini Beans (or Equivalent, Prepared From Dried)
- 1 Cup Small Pasta (Tubettini or Ditalini)
- 1/2 Cup Chopped Fresh Parsley
- Salt & Pepper
- Dash Of Red Pepper Flakes

- Good Quality Olive Oil
- Shaved Parmesan Cheese
- Fresh Chopped Parsley

Prepare:

Heat the oil in a large heavy pot. Cook the onion, carrot, and celery until soft. Add the garlic and cook another minute. Pour in the broth, beans and chopped tomatoes, and cook for 5 minutes. Remove a few scoops of the bean mixture and puree or mash. Return to the pot. Add the pasta, chopped parsley and seasonings. Cook until the pasta is cooked al dente. Serve in bowls topped with a drizzle of olive oil, the shaved cheese and a sprinkling of chopped parsley.

Note: You can add a little chopped pancetta or diced prosciutto to this dish as well for a different taste. Just add the meat into the pot, when you are cooking the onions.
